

NESSUS-G

New Sustainability Governance

International Conference

NEW SUSTAINABILITY CHALLENGES: THE ROLE OF COURTS

26th-27th JUNE 2025
CERTOSA DI PONTIGNANO
SIENA

26th JUNE
Introductory Remarks

Session 1: Challenging climate change before international courts

Session 2: Sustainability and courts: questioning the role of civil society

27th JUNE

Session 3: Future generations and environmental rights: insights from constitutional courts

Conclusions

Scientific Committee

- Tania Groppi, PI
- Antonella Brozzetti
- Valentina Carlino
- Giammaria Milani
- Riccardo Pavoni
- Nicola Vizioli

Organizing Committee

- Rachele Bizzari (coord.)
- Virginia Lemme
- Matteo Paolanti

26th JUNE

(9:00-9.30 AM) Introductory remarks

Roberto Di Pietra, Rector of the University of Siena

Simone Bastianoni, Delegate for Sustainability, University of Siena

Ciro Corvese, Director of the Department of Business and Law, University of Siena

Tania Groppi, Principal Investigator NESUS-G, University of Siena

Session 1 - Challenging climate change before international courts (9:30 AM-1:15 PM)

Chair: Riccardo Pavoni (University of Siena)

Annalisa Savaresi (University of Eastern Finland), The role of international law in climate change litigation

Véronique Boillet (University of Lausanne), Switzerland's condemnation in the KlimaSeniorinnen case: implications and consequence

Irene Spigno (Academia Interamericana de Derechos Humanos), Climate change in the Inter-American system

(11:15 AM) Coffe Break

(11:45 AM) Junior Scholars' Session - Chair: Marco Antonio Simonelli (University of Barcelona)

Miki Kadota (Kyoto University), Climate change litigation in Asia and a consideration of the "Benefits of Future Generations"

Riccardo Luporini (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies), Victimhood and Locus Standi before the European Court of Human Rights in climate change cases: where next?

Kenny Ng (University of Eastern Finland), The Court of Justice of the European Union and sustainability as a principle of EU energy law

Emanuela Rassu (University of Siena), Energy justice in court: some lessons from Latin America in shaping sustainability litigation

(1:30 PM) Lunch

(3:00-7:15 PM) Session 2 - Sustainability and courts: questioning the role of civil society

Chair: Andrew Harding (National University of Singapore)

Christina Binder (University of the Bundeswehr Munich), Sustainability, civil society and courts: what role for local governments?

Siri Gloppen (University of Bergen), Promise and perils of climate litigation

Salwa Hamrouni (University of Carthage), Le rôle de la société civile tunisienne dans la mise en œuvre des SDGs

Wahid Ferchichi (University of Carthage), Le rôle des juridictions tunisiennes en matière de durabilité: l'environnement et le changement climatique en question

Rachele Bizzari (University of Siena), Amici Curiae in climate change litigation: fostering dialogue between civil society and regional human-rights courts

(5:45 PM) Junior Scholars' Session - Chair: Giammaria Milani (University of Siena)

Nathalie Alonzo Andrade (Pontifical Catholic University of Peru), Ecological democracy and indigenous epistemologies: challenges for ecological constitutionalism in Latin America

Alfred Benny Auner (University of Salzburg), Back to the start? Legal standing of associations before the European Court of Human Rights in matters of sustainability

Francesco Merenda (University of Perugia), Sustainability, climate policies and public administration. What are the implications for administrative functions?

Alice Murgier (Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies), Civil society standing in sustainability litigation: shifting responsibility

Mayra Angélica Rodríguez Avalos (Nova Spania University), Participatory ecological democracy to safeguard life rights

(8:15 PM) Dinner

27th JUNE

(9:30 AM-12:45 PM) Session 3 - Future generations and environmental rights: insights from constitutional courts

Chair: Francesco Viganò (Italian Constitutional Court, Bocconi University)

Itziar Gómez Fernández (Carlos III University of Madrid), The legal personification of natural spaces and their constitutional dimension or the STC 142/2024 on the Mar Menor Lagoon

Mathieu Disant (University of Paris 1, Panthéon-Sorbonne), La protection constitutionnelle des générations futures. Perspective française

Gonzalo Ramírez Cleves (Externado University of Colombia), The rights of nature in Latin America: a paradigm shift from anthropocentric to ecocentric vision

(10:45 AM) Coffe Break

(11:15) Junior Scholars' Session - Chair: Valentina Carlino (University of Siena)

Victor Bertolotto (Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne), The role of constitutional judges in protection of French and Brazilian Amazonia

Giacomo Giorgini Pignatiello (University of Naples "L'Orientale"), Comparative constitutional pathways to environmental justice: ensuring environmental sustainability between Europe and Latin America

Deniz Polat (Ankara University), Transformative constitutionalism and judicial enforcement of gender-responsive sustainability: the experience of Turkey

Karol Popławski (Polish Commissioner on Human Rights), Interpretation "in dubio pro naturam" in Polish legal system – limitations and opportunities

(12:45 - 1:15 PM) Conclusions

Xavier Philippe (University of Paris 1, Panthéon-Sorbonne)

(1:30 PM) Lunch

